Still sits the school-house by the road,
A ragged beggar sunning;
Around it still the sumachs grow
And blackberry vines are running.

FAREWELL SONG
(tune "Tell Me Why")

Grantsville we bid thee a fond farewell.
With thee our hearts will forever dwell.
We will remember thru passing years,
When thou has lead us thru smiles and tears..

Farewell to friends and teachers kind.
We'll ne'er forget you though others we find.
Our time of parting has now drawn nigh.
Farewell to thee dear Grantsville High.

Class Prophecy

The prophecy of the Class of '52 as told by George Bitterner.

This is the story of my life after graduation from Grantsville High School. These past ten years have brought me happiness and success. After long hours of studying voice I have achieved my goal; I am now singing with the Metropolitan Opera Association. My wife is the soprano soloist and it was through her inspiration that I have reached these heights. And now it is vacation time. I regret that my wife can not join me but her vacation will not be until later. So it is with professionals!

As the conductor shouted, "All aboard!" I entered the train and started down the aisle. A brief case caught my eye. The name sounded familiar, "Daniel Dudley Hershberger Insurance Company." I took the only empty seat in the coach and recognized my classmate, Danny. He told me he has been married to his school-day sweetheart, Mary Glotfelty, for five years and they are now the proud parents of Dudley Jr. and little Mary. The family wasn't along on this trip because they stayed home to take care of Dan's Rabbitry.

The conductor announced a one hour stop in Washington, D.C. and I decided to spend my time window-shopping. I took a taxi to the heart of the city. As I passed the "Palais Royal" the couple coming out called my name. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Brenneman, the former Miss Zona Kinsinger, met my sight. Dean was loaded down with dress and hat boxes and Zona was smiling and gaily waving her hand. They invited me out to their apartment for dinner and I discovered that Zona is keeping house while Dean is working with his brothers in the "Capital Construction Company."

Zona informed me that alot of my classmates are living and working here in Washington, D.C. and we decided to invite them over for a game of Canasta. I postponed my trip until morning. Anna Broadwater and Betty Buckel were among the first to arrive. I soon saw the flash of a diamond on Betty's left hand and Anna told me she married her boss last month. Her husband arrived later after finishing up his income tax papers. Anna and Betty have been working for the F.B.I. and have a promising future.

Helen Otto and her husband, Paul Hetrick, drove over a little later from their suburban home at Woodlawn. Helen is secretary to the Governor of Maryland at Annapolis.

Next day, on a train speeding through Ohio I noticed a sign while watching the scenery, "Canton, The City of Opportunity." I went to the information desk in the depot and whom should I see but Harold Jenkins. We were discussing "high school days" when Harold's glance traveled to a beautiful young lady entering the door. Turning my head, I recognized her to be "Julie" the girl he brought to the Junior and Senior Prom.

During my three-day visit with Harold and Julie in their elaborate home we really "painted the town." The stage play at the theater featured "The Stars of Tomorrow." We went inside and the usher showed us to our seats. The orchestra was playing some jazz. The drummer was none other than Paul Clark, who received his training in the Grantsville High School Band.

The curtain opened and the spotlight was focused on a beautiful dancer in a black satin costume. We think it ----- yes, it is Shirley Kiester. We went backstage after the show. Shirley and Paul told us they have been travelling together and their next appearance was booked for Maryland Theater in Cumberland. Bim Walker and Harry Leckemby were patiently waiting for Shirley. Which will she choose to-night?

As we were leaving the theatre I noticed a girl sweetly smiling at me, whom I did not recognize at first. I looked again and found to my amazement it was Roberta Railey. We noticed there was a gentleman standing by her side. After talking with her, I learned that she married shortly after graduation and now has four charming little girls.

Evelyn Durr was babysitting for her. Roberta invited us over to her little bungalow on the outskirts of town. We saw an Oldsmobile with Maryland license plates sitting out front. What a surprise! Don Wengerd had come to spend the weekend with them.

I left Ohio, crossed Lake Erie, and went sightseeing in Canada. I planned that one of the highlights of my trip would be my visit with Dick Bender and Shirley Kamp. I attended their lovely wedding several years ago and have kept in touch with them since. While they were high school sweethearts they visited Ontario, Canada and found it to be an enchanting and romantic spot. Dick has built a successful profession and there they have built the home of their dreams.

Evening was drawing nigh as I approached the Hotel Niagara. After paying the taxi-driver I spoke to the bell-hop who was taking my luggage. He looked up with a friendly grin. Why of all things! Gene Swauger. After I entered the hotel lobby I was admiring a beautiful painting of Niagara Falls. In the corner it read, "Artist, Gene Swauger." Grasshopper told me that in his spare time he has gone on with his hobby. I remember the pictures he drew of the teachers in school.

Gene called my attention to Kathryn Resh, the desk clerk, who is also secretary to the hotel manager. As we chatted she told me she has not decided who will be the lucky guy, Don Ryland or Bob Coberly. Kass agreed to have dinner with me that night in the beautiful ball room at the hotel.

Next day I continued my trip to Detroit by way of the Greyhound Bus. All roads to Detroit were lined with signs, "Come to the Showing of the New 1956 Atomic Powered Chevrolet! Designed by Snyder." Perhaps the designer is a relative of Henry. After inquiring, to my amazements, I found the great designer to be Henry Snyder, my classmate from Grantsville.

While reading the sports page of the Detroit Post Gazette I saw that Richard Yommer of the Pittsburgh Pirates is leading Babe Ruth's record by seven days after hitting a "grand-slam" to make 42 home runs for the season, thus far. Their next game was scheduled with the Cincinnati Reds. I immediately planned to take the train to the game since Cincinnati and Pittsburgh were tied for first place in the National League. As the Reds took the field and the first Pirate batter stepped in, the crowd stood and cheered. The teenage bobby-soxers' Fan Club swooned for it was our "super athletic," Rich.

The speaker blared, "This is Wesley Durst giving you the play-by-play description of today's game." What a surprise! I never dreamed Wes would be a radio announcer.

The speaker continued, "Blackwell winds up for the pitch. It's wild for ball one with Beachy making a sensational catch." I consulted my program to find out who this catcher was. Well, it's Carl, Doris Duckworth's old sweetheart! The game tied 7-7.

I wanted to take the Capital Air Lines next day so during the evening I took in the Cincinnati Hillbilly Jamboree. All of the great stars were there; Ernest Tubb, Red Folley, and Eddie Arnold was introducing a new star. Look! Our school-mate, Mary Durst singing, "I'm Going to Haul Off and Love You One More Time." The show was really terrific.

The next morning as I boarded the plane the air line hostess greeted me with a winning smile. It was Martha Miller. I noticed her waving good-bye to Vernon Hetrick, the boy she talked about so much in high school.

As I entered the fair grounds to the Farm Show I caught sight of Jimmie Winebrener, who told me he was one of the chief judges.

Jimmie suggested that we drive down town to the "Wilda-Kay Beauty Nook." Business was booming at the neat and attractive little shop. We stopped for a visit and soon learned that a double wedding is planned for June. Their fiances, Clyde and Hayward, are stationed at Indiantown Gap.

We drove Kay and Wilda over to the barracks; they called my attention to a captain giving orders to his battalion. He resembled Carl Butler, our one-and-only basketball star from G.H.S. Just then General Cross yelled, "Hey, Buzz, take a break." Why, the General was our favorite English teacher at Grantsville, Jamie Cross.

My next stop was in Johnstown where the Preston Twins have their bowling alley. Owen is married to Helen Trimble. Oscar is still having all the girls chasing after him. The pin boys were kept busy serving the many customers during the evening.

The Navy Band was presenting a concert at the Johnstown War Memorial. The curtain opened and, there, all diked out in his Prince Albert Tux stood Robert Railey, who is now director. They opened the program playing "National Emblem," which was his favorite back at G.H.S.

Meyersdale was my next stop. Who should meet me at the bus terminal but Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross and their cute little brown eyed twins. Rheta's engagement was announced before our graduation and they told me they were married the following Fall. They have an adorable stone veneer bungalow on Beachley Street where the happiest hours of their days are shared.

I was on my way to Finzel when I decided to stop in at Velma Arnol's. She was busily addressing wedding invitations since she has finally agreed to marry Paul Wagner, who has been begging her for years.

Continuing my trip to Cumberland, I stopped in Rosenbaums to select a gift for my wife. An attractive girl wrapped my purchase. She was another one of my old school mates, Helena Hetrick. While I was waiting for my change Verda Durst, who is also working there, greeted me and we had an interesting talk.

The big city of Baltimore came next into view. Beulah Miller is a Recruiting Officer there for the U.S. Wacs. She has a very good position and still has the same friendly personality.

Next I took a visit to the University of the State of New York. I was taking a tour of the University and upon entering the music room I noticed Elizabeth Anne Warnick sitting at the piano. She attended Milligan College in Tenn. immediately after graduation and now has her doctor's degree. Bob May is also a chemistry teacher here and they are now the happiest couple on the campus.

My journey is now ended and I am happy knowing that our class motto, "Onward Ever, Backward Never" has proved to be the personal motto of every member of my class.

Class Song

Each of us has in our heart, precious memories.
Let us open up the door with a magic key.
Memories, memories, we cherish each of you.
Let's recall the days we've spent with class of '52.

Ninth grade our band westward went, to West Virginia U.
That year brought the Variety Show for the public's view.
All State Band, three of us, down to Baltimore.
Ninth grade memories farewell, we'll see you all in core.

We sponsored our tenth grade dance, called the Jingle Hop.
All aboard the Pinafore for the Grantsville stop.
Formal tea, Tri State Band, we accomplished these.
Magazine sales we were tops, as everyone could see.

Jolly Juniors, Christmas Dance, then our Minstrel Show
Represented Maryland U., with our band you know.
Spring concerts, Boys' quartet, F.F.A. Queen too.
Two scored high in basketball in uniforms so new.

Arch and Link we edited in our senior year.
All State Chorus, three we sent, them we all did cheer.
Tri State Band, four concerts, F.F.A. Princess.
Then with "Pickles" we did end our years at G.H.S.

Senior Class Will

Dear Faculty and Undergraduates of the Grantsville High School! We have called you to assemble here as a solemn duty that you, the heirs and assigns of our respected clients, the class of 1952, may hear her last will and testament, which, as her legal advisor, we drew, as directed by her, immediately prior to her passing from our presence.

Because of this, if any slight discrepancies or apparent injustice of partiality should appear to you in the distribution of her affects, we trust you will pardon it and realize it is caused not by exhaustion of our brain, never over to robust.

May we, as well as my lamented clients, entreat that you receive your respective legociles in the spirit of unselfish friendship with which they were given? We shall appreciate your courteous attention while we read this duty attested will:

To our dear old school building itself, we leave the peaceful quiet caused by our absence and we also leave to any interested people the books that fly out the windows ever so often and the wads of gum, or crumpled notes we may have left about.

To our principle, Mr. Glenn and the faculty we leave a box of "Kleenex," to dry their tears caused by our departure.

We also leave the Junior Class our good luck and well-known nerves, which they will need next year in the new high school.

To our good friends, the Sophomore Class, we leave our patience. It will be found useful as the only means by which they can endure the Juniors.

To the Freshmen we bequeath our way to get in and out of trouble with out being caught and sent to the office.

To the Eighth Grade, it will be noticed that, although we have left bequeaths to the Juniors, soon to be Seniors, to the Sophmores, soon to be Juniors and to those who will in the fall become Freshmen. We have left them nothing, because by that time their self-valuation will have nothing in our possession would be regarded by them as worthy of their distinction.

To the Glee Club and the Band our ability to watch the leader and the audience at the same time. We may have lost a measure or skipped a beat in the music occasionally but we never missed anything or anybody - in the audience.

Shirley Kamp bequeaths her ability to get along well with the teachers to those who need it.

George Bittner leaves his bass voice to an eighth grade student, Frankie Turner.

Velma Arnold wills her slimness to Freda Hutzel.

Evelyn Durr leaves Don Wengard to Sondra Jacobs for next year.

Martha Miller bequeaths her ability to speak up in class to Mr. Cross to Elma Platter.

Roberta Railey leaves all her gossiping to Joan Younkin.

Beulah Miller leaves her ability to get along with others to June Lee Corale.

Owen Preston leaves his flirting with all the girls in halls to Ronnie Crowe.

Rheta Resh wills her ability to play basketball to next years varsity team.

Henry Snyder bequeaths his love for Miss Shrock's Review of Math Class to all math lovers.

Oscar Preston wills his ability to set up bowling pins at the Magestic Bowling Alley.

Zona Kinsinger leaves her ability to learn and to get lessons in on time to Gene Beachy.

Dean Brenneman leaves his loving ability to Marguerite Minick.

Anna Broadwater bequeaths her crocheting to Shirley Drees.

Carl Butler bequeaths his six feet of man to Loretta Butler.

Betty Buckel wills her sewing to all the Home Ec. girls.

Harold Jenkins bequeaths his way with the women to Glenn Hetrick.

Kathryn Resh bequeaths her driving ability to her sister Frances.

Jim Winebrenner wills his ambition to the laziest member of the Junior Class.

Elizabeth Anne Warnick bequeaths her position of manager of the basketball team to Virgil Beachy so he can over come his bashfulness with the girls.

Paul Clark wills his jitterbugging ability to Juanita Meese, and Frances Johnson.

Mary Durst wills her smile to her niece, Edna Durst.

Carl Beachy bequeaths his ability to sailing paper airplanes in class to Wesley Finkle.

Helen Otto bequeaths her tinyness to Eloise Durst.

Robert Railey leaves his talent for leadership to all of the undergraduates.

Kay Beachy wills her talent for cheerleading to Peggy Durst.

Wilda Warnick bequeaths her ability to play the piano to Jane Bowman.

Helena Hetrick wills all of her letters to army guys to Doris McKenzie.

Richard Yommer bequeaths his temper in basketball games to Bernard Mazer.

Verda Durst leaves sleeping in class and getting away with it to Bill Lowery.

Gene Swauger wills all of his jokes to Margaret Brenneman.

Dan Hershberger leaves his "hotrod" to his brother, Don.

Shirley Keister bequeaths her ability to sing and dance to Marge Kelly.

To Mr. Cross, the Senior Class leaves the old arguments and grudges behind.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sale executor of this, our last will and testament, our class advisor, Mr. Cross.

In witness whereof, we the class of 1951/52, the testator have set our hand and seal on this thirteenth day of June in the year of 1952.

The F.F.A. was first organized in November, 1930.

This year they elected an F.F.A. Sweetheart. All activities are designed to help farm boys to become better farm citizens.

FIELDBALL TEAM

The Grantsville Golden Bear Lassies started out the Fieldball season under the direction of our new coach, Miss Long and made a fine showing. They won second place in the county with five wins and three losses. Much credit is due to Miss Long for the excellent coaching and the diligent way in which we were taught good sportsmanship.

SOCCER TEAM

Our soccer team started off the season with an easy victory over Friendsville by a 4-0 score. We also beat them on the return game. Our next victory was Beall on our home field, however we lost to them in a hard fought game on the opponents field by the tune of 1-0. Grantsville's only regret was getting beat in the Accident games. The team had a very successful season; taking second place in the county.

We are sorry to see our senior soccer stars leave us this year. They are: "Rich" Yommer, "Dudley" Hershberger, "Bob" Railey, "Skip" Swager, Harold Jenkins, and the Preston twins.

Girl's Basketball Team

For the first time in a number of years Grantsville High Girls won the Garrett County Championship. The season began with victories over Central, Oakland, and Friendsville. Next we journeyed to Oakland and were defeated. Following that we were overtaken by the Friendsville Lassies. Coming back home we easily defeated Accident and Kitzmiller. Ending our season we were beaten by Bruce High.

Shirley Keister was high scorer with an average of twenty three points per game. This year four seniors will be leaving their uniforms to the undergraduates. They are: Rheta Resh, Shirley Keister, Shirley Kamp, and Beulah Miller.
